This generous 1,701 square foot two bedroom, two-and-a-half bathroom residence has stunning views of the Rosedale ravine with a terrace that extends the length of the home. Well-proportioned living spaces ideal for entertaining are graciously dispersed, balancing transparency and privacy. The master suite features a walk-through closet, French doors opening to a spa-like ensuite with a freestanding soaker tub and shower. A palatial laundry room and large den contribute to a living space that feels like a house. Eastern light pours into the living room and bedrooms.
